PRAYER OF GOOD COURAGE

\*As we pray the Prayer of Good Courage, we invite you to rise as you're able and face the back doors, a reminder that as we go forth into the world, we go with good courage. You're also invite to join hands with or put your hands on a neighbor near you, a reminder that we do not go forth alone.***

ALL: O God, you have called us to ventures of which we cannot see the ending,
By paths as yet untrodden,
Through perils unknown.
Give us faith to go out with good courage.
Not knowing where we go,
But only that your hand is leading us,
And your love supporting us,
Through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen!

CONFESSION AND FORGIVNESS

\* Please rise as you are able ***

Pastor: Reconciling God,

All: We expect the earth to serve our needs, and we have damaged it in the process. We trample the grounds of wild places and pollute the waters. We abuse your good earth until it cries out in pain. Forgive us, loving God. Remind us again that the land, the sea, the sky, and all the creatures within it are gifts we do not deserve but are given anyway-- signs of your abundant love. Help us now to be humble receivers and generous sharers of them. Amen.

Pastor: Siblings in Christ, the one who was buried into the heart of the earth and then raised to new life forgives you all your sins. Freed from your burdens, Be led by the Spirit to do God's healing work in the world.

All: Amen.

Earth is Full of Wit and Wisdom

#1064

Verse 1

Earth is full of wit and wisdom,
sounding God's delighted laugh,
from the tiny roly-poly
to the treetop-tall giraffe.

All creation sings in wonder;
even rocks and trees rejoice
as they join the ringing chorus:
echoes of our Maker's voice.

Verse 2

Earth is full of wit and wisdom,
woven into harmony.
Ev'ry creature has a purpose,
ev'ry flow'r and bumblebee.

Spider, human, redwood, gecko,
monkey, chicken, mouse, and snake
live within a single fabric:
cloth that only God could make.

Verse 3

Earth is full of wit and wisdom:
penguin, platypus, and snail,
cactus, sea slug, oak, and algae,
from the microbe to the whale.
In this great and strange creation,
with a breath God gives us birth:
born of soil to live as stewards,
called to love and serve the earth.

FIRST READING    Genesis 2:4b-9, 2:15-3:9

In the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, when no plant of the field was yet in the earth and no herb of the field had yet sprung up—for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was no one to till the ground; but a stream would rise from the earth, and water the whole face of the ground— then the LORD God formed man from the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and the man became a living being. And the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east; and there he put the man whom he had formed. Out of the ground the LORD God made to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food, the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

The LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it. And the LORD God commanded the man, ‘You may freely eat of every tree of the garden; but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die.’

Then the LORD God said, ‘It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper as his partner.’ So out of the ground the LORD God formed every animal of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name. The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every animal of the field; but for the man there was not found a helper as his partner. So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. And the rib that the LORD God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. Then the man said,

‘This at last is bone of my bones
and flesh of my flesh;

this one shall be called Woman,
for out of Man this one was taken.’

Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh. And the man and his wife were both naked, and were not ashamed.

Now the serpent was more crafty than any other wild animal that the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, ‘Did God say, “You shall not eat from any tree in the garden”?’ The woman said to the serpent, ‘We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden; but God said, "You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, nor shall you touch it, or you shall die." ' But the serpent said to the woman, 'You will not die; for God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.' So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate. Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

They heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden. But the LORD God called to the man, and said to him, 'Where are you?'

MESSAGE FOR (AND FROM) KIDS

SECOND READING Revelation 22:1-5

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him; they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. And there will be no more night; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign for ever and ever.

Leader: The word of the Lord.

ALL: Thanks be to God.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

On the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me. Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

LORD'S PRAYER

Liberation Theology Translation

Gathered together as one body by the Holy Spirit, let us pray:

Our Father and Mother

who is in us here on earth,

holy is your name

in the hungry who share their bread and their song.

Your Kingdom come,

which is a generous land flowing with milk and honey.

Let us do your will, standing up when all are sitting down,

and raising our voice when all are silent.

You are giving us our daily bread

in the song of the bird and the miracle of the corn.

Forgive us for keeping silent in the face of injustice,

and for burying our dreams; for not sharing bread and wine, love and the land, among us, now.

Don't let us fall into the temptation of shutting the door through fear,

of resigning ourselves to hunger and injustice,

of taking up the same arms as the enemy. But deliver us from evil.

Give us the perseverance and the solidarity to look for love,

even if the path has not yet been trodden, even if we fail;

so we shall have known your Kingdom which is being built forever and ever.

Amen.
